SHEBOYGAN, WISCONSIN

Community Profile

Located on the Western shore of Lake Michigan, Sheboygan is a lakeside destination with a blend of world-class businesses, unique recreational activities, and a wealth of opportunities. Breathtaking views of Lake Michigan, two miles of sandy beaches, world-class sailing and surfing, and premier charter fishing have earned Sheboygan the names “Spirit on The Lake” and “Malibu of the Midwest”. The coastal community is also home to a historic downtown district that boasts unique shopping, dining, and entertainment. Sheboygan celebrates the many different cultures that make it a vibrant place through annual events and authentic cuisine from all over the world. With over 20 schools and a UW-Green Bay Campus location, Sheboygan offers a first-rate education to thousands of students. The City of Sheboygan is committed to providing its residents with a high quality of life through safe neighborhoods, economic opportunities, and a top-tier workforce.

Government Structure

The City of Sheboygan is governed by a Mayor and Common Council. The Common Council is the legislative branch of the City government. The Common Council is the forum for reviewing and debating proposed ordinances, resolutions, and policies proposed by the standing Council committees, boards, and commissions. The most important legislation is the annual City budget. The Common Council is composed of 10 elected alderpersons, one representing each district, and is chaired by the Common Council President, who is elected citywide and a Vice President. Each alderperson serves a two-year term. It is the Common Council's job to work cooperatively with the Mayor and the City administration to ensure that tax dollars are responsibly spent and that all residents have access to the services and programs that make urban living safe, affordable, and desirable. The City Administrator reports to the Common Council for the administrative functions of city government. The City Administrator is responsible for supervising, coordinating, and administering the city's departmental activities, keeping the Mayor and Common Council informed as to operational and administrative needs and activities, and providing long-range planning leadership.
